DAR Chapter Names Nominating Committee

A committee to nominate officers of Galvez Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, was named when the chapter held its November meeting at the home of Mrs. George Voorhies. The group, including Mrs. Charles Bonduesque, Mrs. Kline Grigsby and Mrs. C.O. Theriot, will present a slate for election in 1968.

Mrs. Voorhies was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. R.T. Bennett, Mrs. James Bollich and Mrs. E.C. Hagood of Abbeville. Mrs. Bollich, chapter regent, presided at the business meeting and read a message from the national president of DAR.

Mrs. Charles Doran, chaplain, led the opening prayer. Officers presenting reports included Miss Sue LeRosen, secretary, and Mrs. Daniel J. Olivier, treasurer.

A highlight of the meeting was the announcement that the group’s annual Christmas tea will be held Saturday, December 2, in the home of Mrs. Bennett Voorhies Sr. Mrs. O.H. Breidenbach announced that the high school Good Citizen Award recipient will be recognized at that time.

Members volunteered to sort clothing and toys for the Salvation Army on December 14.

Miss Helene Sliffe, formerly curator of the Lafayette Museum, was the speaker for the afternoon. She told the group of the early years of Lafayette’s history and described the construction of the Jean Mouton house which in 1954 became the Lafayette Museum.

The meeting was followed by a social hour during which refreshments were served.

Attending were Miss Lucille Arceauaux, Miss Pearl Segura, Miss LeRosen, Miss Florence Kennedy, Miss Sliffe, Mrs. Lennox Fitch, Mrs. J.C. Reinhart, Mrs. L.O. Broussard, Mrs. Bonduesque, Mrs. I.W. Russoe, Mrs. Otis Green, Mrs. Frederick Nehrbass, Mrs. Voorhies, Mrs. Dan J. Olivier, Mrs. Joseph A. Tobin Jr.
