Decorating The Village At Christmas

Friday evening even if it rains, "Christmas Comes Alive" at the Acadian Village.
During the event, sponsored by the Junior League of Lafayette, the Acadian buildings on the grounds will be decorated for the Christmas season through Dec. 12.
There will also be a giant alligator in the bayou and animated critters to entertain the crowd. Santa Claus will be on hand to listen to children's orders for Christmas.
Other features of the Christmas pageant include local singers, dancers, puppeteers, and actors on different nights. Each night, The Cajun Night Before Christmas will be read and door prizes will be given away.
Tickets are available for $3 at the gate, from any member of the Junior League at D.H. Holmes, Racoon Records and Abita's.

Jeanne Gilley (right) and Carol Duplechin string lights