Southwestern Education Building Goes Up

STEEL IS LIFTED into place for the roof of the new Maxim D. Doucet building on the campus of the University of Southwestern Louisiana at Lafayette. The building will contain 41 classrooms and 50 faculty offices for the departments of mathematics and education. The structure is being built at a cost of $1.3 million.