St. Martin Historical Group Elects Officers

BREAUX BRIDGE - At a recent Board of Directors meeting of the Attakapas Historical Association held at the Parish Library in St. Martinville the following officers were elected by acclamation to direct the activities of the society for the coming year:

President, Harris J. Periou, Breaux Bridge; vice-president, E.L. Guidry Jr., St. Martinville; secretary, Mrs. Virginia Kyle Hine, New Iberia; treasurer, Mrs. Jerome Broussard, St. Martinville; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Virginia O. Yongue, Breaux Bridge.

By-laws to govern the association, presented by the chairman of by-laws committee, Mrs. Jerome Broussard, were discussed and approved by the board of directors. They will be presented to the assembly for ratification at the fall meeting.

Miss Pearl Segura, board member, was appointed by the president to propose sketches for letterheads to be used on the association stationary.

The board of directors approved the appointment of a committee on gifts and loans. The duty of the committee will be to formulate rules governing the acceptance, housing and disposal of any gifts or loans made to the association, subject to the approval of the board of directors.

The fall meeting date of the association was approved by the board of directors with the place and time of the meeting to be arranged by the president. The association meeting date was set for Monday, October 3, 1966. All members will be duly notified of the meeting place and time well in advance of the meeting.

The following board of directors members were present for the meeting: Huey H. Breaux, Mrs. Jerome Broussard, Miss Maurine Bergerie, Keith Couregue, L. Guidry Jr., Mrs. Virginia Kyle Hine, N.D. Olivier, Harris J. Periou, Miss Pearl Segura, Robert Silverman; Mrs. Lyle G. Williams, Mrs. Ernest Rongue.