Joe Huval founded Evangeline Maid

Joe Huval, founder of Evangeline Maid bread, is shown wearing his "Baker's Cap" during the early days of World War I. He started Huval's Bakery in the early 1900s, delivering bread to the countryside in a Model T truck. This photo is part of the permanent collection on display at the Lafayette Parish Clerk of Court office in the Parish Courthouse. If you have an historic picture you would like to see displayed in the collection, contact Clerk of Court O.C. Dan Guillot. He will have it reproduced and return it to you.

The Daily Advertiser
Sunday, Feb 2, 1992
Page 2, Column 1-3