Mrs. Mary Foto, at left, placed first in the Wangler is chairman of the show which is professional division with her oil, pictured on top row, in the show sponsored by Central Louisiana Art Assn. Mrs. George A.

Wangler is chairman of the show which is being held in the National Guard Armory in conjunction with the Rapides Parish Fair.

Exhibit of Area Art Works
Featured at Rapides Fair

More than 200 works are being exhibited by Central Louisiana Art Assn., in the National Guard Armory in conjunction with the Rapides Parish Fair.

The show will remain open to the public through Sunday, Mrs. George A. Wangler, chairman, said today. The paintings are hung in the main lobby of the armory.

Membership Drive

The art association will open its membership drive for the 1964-65 season Sunday at the exhibit of the works of the late Joe Scott Ewell.

Mrs. George E. Baria, secretary, said that the show will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. at the Alexandria Community Center.

Other features of the season will be an early fall sidewalk show and the arts and crafts sale show, to be held in conjunction with the Alexandria Service League. Also planned are the annual exhibit of children's art, the Louis Wellan memorial show at which members of the art group will show their works, and an outstanding IBM watercolor show. Ten events will be scheduled throughout the season.

Heading the membership committee are Miss Pat Clyde and Mrs. Frances B. Lococo.

Prizes

Three first prizes were awarded to artists in the exhibit at the fair by the judges, Grady Harper, head of the art department of Louisiana College, and G. Penland of the art faculty of McNeese State College, Lake Charles. Mrs. Farry Photo placed first in the professional division and also received honorable mention; Mrs. J. M. Stoker received first prize in the Sunday Painters class with Mrs. Dorothy East scoring second prize, and Mesdames J. W. Hamilton, H. S. Trammell and Maude Baker, honorable mention; Miss Bertha Byrd received first prize in the student category with Ken Parker, a Louisiana College student, placing second, and Mrs.
C. A. Fairbanks, honorable mention.

Members of the committee in charge of hanging pictures were Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Platt, Mr. and Mrs. Trammell, Mesdames Stoker, Henry Mayeux and Wangler.

Assisting at the exhibit during the fair are Mesdames Fairbanks, Hamilton, Blanche Sau-cier, Platt, East, George E.
Baria, V. L. Anders, Frankie Reed, Ed Ortego, Thomas F.
Dugan, Baker, Foto, Trammell, Stephanie Voda, W. P. Vernon, Tom Erwin and Wangler.

Officers of the club are Philip M. Sleet, president; Mr. Platt, vice president; Mrs. Baria, secre-dary, and Mrs. East, treasurer.