Failure to Reconstitute Board Dooms Poverty War, Disappoints People

Lafayette—The failure of federal officials to reconccile the state "hostile to the dooms of poverty war, disappointed the Board of Social Security. According to Joseph Walker, who is the chairman of the Board, it was learned that the state was not ready to proceed with the project. The Board has been working with the state for several months to try to get the state to agree to the project, but to no avail.

"I Was Just Learnin'

Joseph Walker, 24, told the Register he was "just learning" about the program. "I didn't know what it was all about," he said. "I just thought it was a way to help people who are in need." He added, "I want to be part of it."

Goodbye Among Disappointed People

Participants in the poverty war were seen leaving the office. "It's a shame," said one worker. "They've worked so hard to make this work."

The Staff

The Board's staff was seen leaving the office. "We're sad," said one member. "We've been working hard to make this work."
