AVERY ISLAND MARKER UNVEILED—Unveiling of a bronze marker commemorating the discovery of rock salt at Avery Island 101 years ago, first in North America was held at Avery Island Saturday morning. Presentation of the marker was made by Miss Annie Lou Murphy of Baton Rouge, representing the Louisiana Department of Commerce and Industry. Acceptance was made by S. Coleman Avery, as president of Avery Island Inc. Guest speaker for the occasion was Charles L. (Pie) Dufour, columnist for the Times-Picayune. Jacob Landry was master of ceremonies. Mrs. J. S. Brown Jr., president of the Iberia Chapter Louisiana Cultural Resources Commission spoke briefly on the historical importance of preserving such landmarks. Invocation was given by Rev. Robert Wayne Jackson, rector of the Episcopal Church of the Epiphany and benediction by Rev. Edward Fruge, pastor of the Catholic Church at Rynella. Shown above are: S. Coleman Avery, Mrs. J. S. Brown Jr., Charles L. Dufour, Miss Annie Lou Murphy and Jacob Landry. (Complete story of the ceremonies and another picture will be published in Monday's Daily Iberian.)
