CHARLES LUCET (left foreground) talks with Bishop Maurice Schexnider of the Lafayette Diocese as the two leave the chancery of St. John's Cathedral. The French ambassador's meeting with the bishop was one of the activities in a day-long visit to south Louisiana Saturday. The visit was meant to pay official French recognition to Louisiana for her efforts to preserve the French language.

Times-Picayune, March 16, 1971, sec. 6, p. 3, col. 4