Delegates to the International French Congress being held at Angelle Hall on the USL campus include, from left, Dr. Adelard Savoie, president University of Moncton in New Brunswick; Mrs. Tom Boudreaux Nelson, professor of French at the University of Moncton and a member of the Acadian Historical Society; Dean Thomas Arceneaux, USL; and Bona Arsenault, member of the Quebec National Assembly and Acadian Historian. (Advertiser Staff Photo)

CODOFIL SPONSORS

French Congress Begins In City

Delegates from 20 French-speaking areas of the world began registering this morning at Angelle Hall on the University of Southwestern Louisiana campus, from the Caribbean, Canada, and Louisiana’s Acadian area were expected to attend the conference.

First Event

This is the first such event in Lafayette. The Council

See Picture, Story Page 6