Baton Rouge - The Louisiana Board of Liquidation has approved a $50,000 appropriation for the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana.

Council Chairman James Domengeaux of Lafayette said the emergency appropriation would be used to pay the salaries of instructors brought from France to teach the French language and culture in Louisiana kindergartens.

Despite Efforts

The Council was given a reserve jurisdiction over natural gas produced in Louisiana.

Despite efforts to eliminate funding, the board approved more than $365,000 in emergency appropriations - including one of $100,000 for Delgado Junior College.

The board Wednesday heard requests for more than $694,000 in emergency funds.

Officials from the New Orleans Junior College sought the appropriation after the 1971 legislature inadvertently omitted