FRENCH LANGUAGE REVIVAL — Participants in the state convention of the Foreign Language Teachers Association held at USL recently talk with James Domengeaux, chairman of the Council for the Development of French in Louisiana, on plans for the rejuvenation of French and the other ethnic languages of the country. From left, above, are H. B. Davies, supervisor, State Department of Education; Domengeaux; Dr. Ernest Hayden, University of Texas; Dr. Carlos Fandal, head, department of foreign languages, Northeast State College; and Dr. Richard Chandler, USL professor and head, department of foreign languages.