If the lock is completed, only 1.27 miles will remain to be dredged to the gulf. There will be dredging in the gulf itself until the 12-foot contour line is reached. That is about two miles from the shore.

Staff Photo by Douglas Bienvenu.