CAMERON, Dec. 22 (Spl1-Lo-Cal and area talent will be utilized for two night programs during the coming sixth annual Fur and Wildlife Festival at Cameron on Jan. 12 and 13, Festival President Hadley A. Fontenot said.

Among the many activities approved by the activities committee Tuesday night were vocal numbers by the Landry Memorial Choir, song and dance numbers; by the Yamettes of Opelousas and onstage exhibition of archery feats by the home demonstration members will be part of the program each night.

Fur Queen Selection
Selection of a Fur Festival Queen on the Saturday night will again be featured followed by a queen's ball in the South Cameron gymnasium.

The Cameron Parish queen will, be chosen at the Friday nigh program Jan. 12.

Day's Activities
Day activities will include boat races, and a number of well esstablished contests such as trap shooting, oyster shucking, nutria and muskrat skinning, duck and goose calling. The fact that many of the contestants make their living using these skills assures good performances in all the contests, Mr. Fontenot said.

A highlight of the two-day ac-vities is the parade at 2 p. m.
Saturday. Fl oats are conceived and built by local talent. They ustually feature some phase of the fish and wildlife industry of Cameron Parish.
