Quaint Shopping - Covington is becoming more than just a residential community of merchants selling products quality goods. First stop is downtown Covington then Florida Street and now is spreading throughout the city. Covington's sophistication is evident in its downtown, its museums, Boutiques, Louisiana, and Hammond. The surroundings of Covington are very special. We can see the light of shopping where the pralines are small. The menu is unique to quality, the atmosphere is electric, and the service is personal. Many shops are currently open in the downtown Victorian era.

Downtown Covington - It's now in an Old Town. Next is in the Victorian era. A revitalization which is new, but the old designs and charm of the buildings and streets are being retained. Come visit and enjoy a day of shopping.

One-of-a-Kind Stores - Covington has many one-of-a-kind stores. Come find something special for yourself or as a gift for someone. Owners of these stores live in Covington. A few of their names are Lomay, Smith's Hardware, and Lee Lane Collectibles.
