Good Times in Southern Louisiana

Bienvenue! Welcome to Southern Louisiana where lazy bayous wind through oak and cypress trees dripping with Spanish moss.

BY CONNIE SHERLEY

itself, but the coast area is not by any means small. Some of the scenic areas are home to Creole farmers. When you're in the area, don't miss the chance to visit the town of St. Martinville, which is the starting point for many of the local tours.

St. Martinville is a charming town with a rich history. It was founded in 1795 by Spanish colonists and has been a center of Cajun culture ever since. The town has many historic sites, including the St. Martinville Courthouse and the St. Martinville Museum. The museum houses a collection of artifacts that give visitors a glimpse into the town's past.

The town also has several restaurants that serve Cajun cuisine, including the famous Lagneau's and the St. Martinville Inn. These restaurants are well worth a visit, especially if you're looking for a taste of authentic Cajun food.

In addition to its historic sites and delicious food, St. Martinville is also a great place to visit if you're interested in fishing. The town is located on the banks of the Vermilion River, which is one of the most popular fishing spots in Louisiana. If you're a fishing enthusiast, be sure to check out the local tackle shops and rental services to get you set up with all the gear you'll need for a day on the river.

Overall, St. Martinville is a charming town with plenty to see and do. Whether you're interested in history, food, or fishing, you're sure to find something to enjoy in this Cajun gem.

The Louisiana Creole culture is alive and well in St. Martinville, which celebrates its heritage with a number of annual festivals and events. These include the St. Martinville Crawfish Festival, which takes place in April, and the St. Martinville Backwater Festival, which is held in September. These festivals offer visitors a chance to experience the local culture and traditions, including Cajun music, dance, and cuisine.

In addition to its festivals, St. Martinville is also home to several other attractions worth visiting. The town has several parks and nature trails, including the St. Martinville Town Park and the St. Martinville Nature Reserve. These parks offer visitors a chance to enjoy the natural beauty of the area, including the stunning bayou views.

St. Martinville is also home to several art galleries and museums that showcase the works of local artists. These include the St. Martinville Art Gallery and the St. Martinville Museum of Art. These museums offer visitors a chance to see a variety of art, including paintings, sculptures, and photography.

In conclusion, St. Martinville is a charming town with plenty to see and do. Whether you're interested in history, food, fishing, or art, you're sure to find something to enjoy in this Cajun gem. So if you're planning a trip to Southern Louisiana, be sure to make a stop in St. Martinville to experience the town's unique culture and beautiful bayous.
Maybe it's time you tried Baton Rouge!

Our plantation homes and historic landmarks await you.

Needled in the heart of plantation country, Baton Rouge is an enchanting Deep South city that still clings proudly to its gracious past.

Baton Rouge offers an abundance of historic sites. Our elegant antebellum mansions whisper secrets of those glorious days before the Civil War. Here you'll discover the tallest state capital in the United States. And you'll delight in the splendor of the magnificent Louisiana State Capitol, where guided tours are available.

Where you'll find our parades with quaint museums and galleries, world-renowned Creole cuisine, spectacular nightlife, iconic universities, and lush green parks and recreational areas.

Maybe it's time you tried Baton Rouge!

Baton Rouge Area Convention and Visitors Bureau

Baton Rouge Area Convention and Visitors Bureau
3200 Nicholson Street, Baton Rouge, LA 70802

Please visit our free brochure in Baton Rouge.

Name
Address
City
State
Zip

The Next Generation stands over the grave of Confederate Leader

Chrome and glass and stainless steel playing softly against imported fabrics and plush comfort.

A private place for excitement or a quiet rendezvous.

Del Lago's distinctive cuisine, presented at your table, part of a new tradition of international flavor and attentive service.

As the night grows older, Del Lago's second personality comes alive to flashing psychedelic beams of excitement.

The ceiling opens. And Del Lago goes disco.

EAST OF COLLEGE ON THE I-10 SERVICE ROAD
BATON ROUGE 504-926-8710
Texas International Package Tour/Romantic French Louisiana

The time has come for you to see something of your own country, to visit the land where your ancestors once lived and worked, to experience the joy of discovering a new way of life. If you're looking for a vacation to remember, look no further than this package tour to the beautiful French Quarter of New Orleans.

Package includes:
- 5 nights in New Orleans
- 3 meals per day
- Transportation from/to airport
- All sightseeing tours
- Admission to all attractions
- All taxes and gratuities

Package excludes:
- Airfare
- Expenses for personal items
- Any additional meals or drinks

See your local travel agent for more information on this package tour.

Recognized by:
- The Travel Magazine
- The Texas Flyer
- The Undergraduate Gourmet

For more information, contact us at:
Blair House
1134 S.みて通り
Lafayette, LA 70503
Phone: (337) 234-1234

Bienvenue a Lafayette!

If you're discovering Lafayette for the first time, The Blair House is a must... elegant dining, superb cocktails, outstanding service... The Blair House... for a true appreciation of Acadian tradition.

Traveler's Tips:
- Wear comfortable shoes for walking.
- Bring sunscreen and a hat for sunny days.
- Try local dishes such as Crawfish Étouffée.

For She's A Jolly Good Seller.

June Welch, Inc.
Real Estate & Property Manager

June Welch
208-567-8901

For a taste of New Orleans, try our special French Quarter package.

For more information, contact us at:
The Blair House
1134 S. 省委通り
Lafayette, LA 70503
Phone: (337) 234-1234

Chéz Pastor
Lafayette, Louisiana
1211 Pollock Road
Phone: (337) 234-1234

Chez Pastor
Lafayette, Louisiana
1211 Pollock Road
Phone: (337) 234-1234

Check out our special deals and packages on our website.