of the special day.

Gov. Treen’s proclamation for the day
declares:

WHEREAS, the foundation of America’s greatness has always been in the strength of its people; and

WHEREAS, many families feel the need for support by others who believe and value family as they do; and

WHEREAS, many families are hurting because of death, sickness, divorce, alienation of parent and child, substance abuse, person abuse, finances; and

WHEREAS, there is a growing need for people to realize that their individual family unit is called to participate in the larger family of mankind;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, DAVID C. TREEN, Governor of the State of Louisiana, do hereby proclaim Sunday, the 27th day of September, 1981 as FAMILY DAY 1981 in Louisiana and call upon all citizens throughout Louisiana to give recognition to all families.
