Lafayette area is one of the few areas in Louisiana where Cajun music is being preserved and where the French language is being encouraged in the school systems.

Mrs. David Perkins, President of Bel Canto, opened the luncheon by reading the words of the National Federation of Music Clubs' official Invocation written by Julia Smith. Mrs. Bertie Dye, Program Committee, introduced the guest performer.

The luncheon tables were decorated with dolls dressed in their native attire — a can-can dancer from France, a Spanish bullfighter, two dolls representing English royalty, and a lace maker from Belgium; also dolls from Japan, Korea and Greece.

Members and their guests in attendance were Mmes. W. W. Sharp, Vito Gotautas, Robert Clement, James Hernandez, Leo LeBlanc, Patrick Shelby, Dann...
