Historic home

The Victorian-style home at 305 East Second Street in Crowley boasts gingerbread latticework and verandas that curve around the side. The home, built in 1898, is one of 200 buildings in Crowley listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Many of those buildings are clustered along the oak-lined streets of the city's Historic District.