LAFAYETTE ADVERTISER.
September 17, 1870—on Thursday night Sheriff Landry with his deputies, made a raid on Cote Gelce, and captured two individuals belonging to a band of horse and cattle thieves and murderers, who have been carrying on an extensive business in that way throughout the Attakapas Parishes and in St. Landry and Calcasieu. Julien Guidry, a horse thief, and—Brousard, an accomplice in the murder of Saunders and others, which occurred on Bayou Tigre, in the Parish of Vermilion some months ago, were arrested and are now in jail; the officers are on the track of several others of the band and it is hoped that they will be arrested soon. These scamps should be caught and dealt with. The officers of other parishes should be on the alert.
