NEW BAKERY - Plans for ~ $2,000,000 bakery for Bunny Bread in New Orleans were announced today by Frem F. Boustany, Chairman of the Board of Huval Baking Co., Inc., of Lafayette. The announcement was made by Boustany at a press conference in the office of Mayor Victor Sciro in New Orleans.
Joining Boustany in the announcement are (left to right) Richard Montgomery, President of the Chamber of Commerce of New Orleans; Sciro; Boustany; and A. B. "Cotton" Zilar, president of Bunny Bread.

Huval Baking Announces
New Orleans Expansion

ADVERTISER 1-31-67 P-A Frem F. Boustany, Chairman of the Board of Huval Baking Co., Inc., Lafayette, bakers of Evangeline Maid Bread, announced today plans to build a two million dollar bakery in New Orleans.

The announcement was made by Mr. Boustany at a press conference in the office of Mayor Sciro in New Orleans.

The new plant will be built for Bunny Bread of New Orleans and will occupy in excess of 4 acres of land in the eastern section of the city near the lake front. Employment for the new facility will be between 250 and 300 people. Total company employment will be in excess of 600.

The company sells Evangeline Maid bakery products in southwest Louisiana from Grand Isle to the Texas line. Bunny Bread is sold in New Orleans, Alexandria, and most of north Louisiana. The company has divisions in Lake Charles, Alexandria, DeRidder, Eunice, Morgan Dity, Houma, and Franklin.

Boustany said that it is the company's intention to build the most modern bakery in the United States. Evangeline Maid ranks among the country's foremost independent bakers and the plant we will build will encompass the most scientific advances in the baking business.

Evangeline Maid entered the Daily Advertiser.