"When you walk down the (renamed) street, you won't have constant reminders of the people who fought to keep your ancestors enslaved."

GENEVIA JOY, Jefferson Davis Parkway resident

OPPOSING groups in the monument issue chant and yell at each other on the streetcar median across from the Jefferson Davis monument Wednesday in New Orleans.

ABOVE: Confederate supporters Kanaksha Katta, left, and Arlene Barum watch crews remove the Jefferson Davis statue in New Orleans on Thursday. LEFT: Crews begin the work to remove the statue.