Walter Peters home setting for silver team on Sunday

JENNINGS, La. — "International" was the theme chosen for the silver tea sponsored by the Jennings Arts and Crafts Club at the home of Walter C. Peters Saturday, May 9, from 3 to 6 p.m. throughout the afternoon.

The guest book was designed and made by Mrs. Jay Reaves and carried out by the wisteria motif of the magnificent chandelier composed of approximately 350 pieces of Smokey Mountain crystal in the shapes of clusters of wisteria and shaded in tones of pale pastel and deep purple. The guest book was covered with black velvet with the wisteria and the world's Arts and Crafts Club painted on with pastel paints.

Among the paintings was a "Becov Valley" by Peter Hurd purchased while Peters was attending the New Mexico Military Institute at Roswell, N.M., a painting by the late French artist Jean Bouquets, titled "Le Marche des Fleurs" and "Les Enfants" by Lefarge, a work that includes three figures painted in complementary colors.

Among the napskins was a Louis XVI fruitage grouping with a table set and chairs, which came from Mayreais Lodge near Vents. The napskins back to 1899 when a scandal broke involving the Crown Prince of Austria, one of the factors contributing to the downfall of the Austro-Hungarian reign.

Centering the grouping was an Italian coffee table inlaid with ivory laced marble with signs of the Zodiak set in the marble, a work so intricate that it is done only in Italy. A magnificent grandfather clock with a set of triple chimes and works by Tiffany was breathtaking, as was a Hepplewhite mahogany settee with sky blue and gold damask upholstery. An over mantle Chippendale mirror with numerous mirror panels was on the wall near the salon.

Among the other beautiful works of art on display were a set of major figurines, a German hand-carved clock made in the conversion of a Chin-father, the late Frank R. Jaenke, by a missionary he had sponsored. After the missionary had left, the conversion of the Jaenke family, he had sent the doll back to Jaenke.

Miss Anna Claire Daughenbaugh, floral chairman, spaced arrangements of spring flowers throughout the rooms.

Centering the serving table, which was covered with a cream-colored damask cloth with handwoven flowers blended to match the hues of the chandelier, was a centerpeice of larkspur and other spring flowers carrying out the hues of the chandelier and banquet cloth.

The "International" theme was carried out in the menu of dishes, including a Russian caviar and Russian rum cake, a casserole of creamed shrimp in individual ramekins and home-made chocolate cake.

Assisting with other hostess duties were Mrs. E. N. Garbarino, Mrs. W. C. Bangle, Mrs. Alba Reedswood, Mrs. Milton St. John, Mrs. Eric McWhirt, Mrs. W. B. Donald, Jr.

Members of the Arts and Crafts Club who were hostesses at the silver tea sponsored by the Jennings Arts and Crafts Club, said the proceeds from the tea will be used for the benefit of the children of the Jennings Public Schools and the approval of the Jeff Davis and Tullipan organizations.

Ester Crain entertained with party at Swift camp

JENNINGS, La. — The Charles Swift camp on Morgan Shores was the setting recently for a party honoring Miss Estelle Crain, spring graduate of Jennings High School. The party was given by Mrs. Swift.

The dining area was centered with one large table laid with a yellow cloth and an arrangement of yellow and green flowers and silhouettes of boy and girl graduates on each side.

Smaller tables were spaced on the large screened porch where the guests gathered and each was served with a yellow cloth and centering with small arrangements of flowers and graduate motifs identical to the large table.

Nut cups for each graduate in the shape of a girl graduate were filled with mixed nuts while pastel foil wrapped cups shaped like flowers held pink marshmallows. On the table was a large cake white icing decorated with yellow tinted coconut and chocolate bows with congratulations inscribed on each. The napkins and other special ornaments spaced throughout the camp added to the graduation scene.

Each guest was presented with a silver silver with pastel colored pastel colors. Each guest was given a gold bracelet trimmed with pearls.

The menu consisted of a choice of shrimp, tuna or egg salad, stuffed celery hearts, Italian bread and butter, potato chips, olives, cake and cold drinks. The afternoon was spent skiing, boating and swimming.

Guests included: Sharon LeBlanc, Shelia LeBlanc, Cheri Burgess, Astrid Garrett, Stanley Cress, May Lou Caldwell, Cheryl Helton, June Leonard, Marilyn Miller, Joyce Morgan, Shirley Morgan, Donna Reeves, Kathleen Richey, Pat Smith, Alison Clemans, Penny Curte, Marilyn Sealy and the honoronee, Estelle Crain.

Assisting Mrs. Swift in hostess duties were Mrs. Jake Neely, Mrs. E. L. Johnson and Mrs. R. B. Johnson.

Tea girls in lovely bouffant dresses assisted with the guests and other phases of the entertainment. Misses Mary Ann Longman, Noel Knight, Karen and Jenny Nichols and Alice Lackey served in this capacity. Throughout the afternoon a continuous program of piano music was provided by Mrs. Gladys Cannon and Miss Sheila White.
