July 4th
Celebration Scheduled

A family day celebration sponsored by the Acadian Civilian Club will be held at the Acadian Village on July 4.
The day’s activities will begin at 8 a.m. with a fund-raising pancake breakfast. Tickets for the breakfast will be $3 for adults and $1.50 for children 10 years old and under. The tickets are available in advance at the Acadian Village Store. Breakfast will be served until 11 a.m.

A cane pole fishing rodeo will be held at 10 a.m. and is open to children under 13 years old. Participants are asked to bring their own cane poles; no rubber and reeds are allowed. Trophies will be awarded to winners.

At 11 a.m., a prayer service will be conducted by the Lafayette Ministerial Alliance in the village church, La Chapelle du Nord et Est. It will be dedicated to the hostages in Iran. The hostages will also be remembered with yellow ribbons tied around trees in the village.

Games such as musical chairs, sack races and a tug-of-war over the bayou, will be held from 1-3 p.m. Prizes will be given in adult and children’s categories.

At 2 p.m., Larry Logan will give a benefit concert on the harmonica. Other featured events will be displays by the Louisiana National Guard and the state Department of Forestry, as well as crafts and plants grown in the village.

Watermelon, hot dogs, beans and other refreshments will also be available.

All of the activities will be included in the admission price which will be $2 for adults, $1 for students 6-18 years old, $1 for those over 65.

The Village and Alliance Center are located off Ridge Road, approximately two miles from the Abbeville Rd.
