Group seeks changes to quench underd Financing

CRAVE TAYLOR
CRAVE@STAFF.COM

People under 21 years old committed nearly one-third of the crimes in Lafayette, according to a report by the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

These are some of the reasons: The Kelley Family, which is the mind and culture in Lafayette, knows that no one under 21, and may be of legal status, too.

Rachel Godaux of The Randolph House reported that in 2011, 9.8 percent of those arrested in Lafayette were under 21, according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

State one of toughest in US for drunk driving enforcement

SCOTT ROGERS
GAINESVILLE, LOUISIANA

Louisiana is one of the states that has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.

The state also has an agreement with the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration in addition to a separate penal code for driving under the influence according to the Louisiana Highway Safety Research Group.