Up and Down the Street

May 24, 1965

Louisiana Crafts Council maintains a shop at 1114 S. Carrollton, selling hand-made items by Louisiana artists, and would like to "create" something for you.

Janet K. Lauer reminds that members of the council will make anything to order, within the scope of their crafts, or you may order a dozen or 100 of an individual item that you see in the shop. If it is feasible to reproduce it that many times, you'll get 100 "originals," or whatever number you want.

Hooked rugs, wall hangings, creative stitchery, enamel on copper, hand-wrought silver and gold jewelry, pottery and ceramics, porcelain wind chimes are among the many gifts on sale. If you think up anything you'd like hand-crafted, from a bird cage to...