La. French Council to Again Join in Programs with Quebec

The Council for the Development of French in Louisiana, a state agency, is once again participating in two summer programs with the government of Quebec.

The study program segment, as announced by James Domengeaux, chairman, consists of five weeks of French courses, awarding up to six college credits recognized by Louisiana colleges and universities. The program takes place at Jonquiere College in the Lake St. John region of the Canadian province. Departure is scheduled for July 3.

The program, including round-trip plane fare and tour of Quebec City and Montreal, costs $425 for the first 150 applicants, and $500 for those after the first 150. Persons 16 or older are eligible, and information may be obtained from the Foreign Language Department of state colleges and universities, or from CODOFIL, Box 3936, Lafayette, La. 70501.

The second program, a Youth Inns program, consists of four weeks of outdoor and camping activities, as well as a stay in a French-Canadian home in Quebec Province. Departure also is scheduled July 3. Those 12 to 18 of age are eligible. The cost will be $400, including two-way plane fare. The council will furnish additional information on this program.
