Scenes from LSBA/LASS Day at the Legislature

LSBA Executive Director Victor Hodgkins addresses the attendees from the Louisiana School Boards Association and from the Louisiana Association of School Superintendents on the importance of time spent contacting their legislators at the Capitol.

LSBA President-Elect Dr. Clara Robertson is shown at podium officially opening the meeting which was held in the A. D. Smith Auditorium of the State Department of Education building.

Hands go up from attendees in a vote taken to determine priority ranking of various legislative proposals. At the top was defeat of a bill that would have provided $1500 vouchers for pupils to use to attend either public or nonpublic schools.

LSBA Dinner for House Education Committee Members

Chairman Long, shown standing, expresses his committee’s appreciation for the cooperation and cordiality of LSBA’s legislative consultants and other staff members during the 1990 session.

Just a pre-dinner buzz session with a mingling of committee members and LSBA staff members.

While politics occupies the men huddling, the spouse guests enjoy a “getting to know you” time and a friendship reunion.
