Louisiana's Young Men in Action

Louisiana Jaycee headquarters building in Galveston was dedicated in May 1965.

Miss Firestine is a graduate of the University of Illinois and a member of the Illinois Jaycees. She has been active in many community activities and has served as a Jaycee delegate to the National Convention.

John E. Troth, of Zachary, was named Louisiana's outstanding leader in January. He succeeded Elton Endicott of Lake Charles as state chairman.

The Miss Louisiana Pageant is an annual event that is sponsored by the Louisiana Jaycees. The pageant is held in conjunction with the State Jaycee Convention and is a major event in the state Jaycee program.

The Jaycees are a national organization that was founded in 1915 by a group of men who were interested in community improvement and leadership development. The organization has grown to include more than 6,000 chapters in the United States and other free countries.

The Jaycees in Louisiana are active in many community projects, including youth activities, community development, and public service projects. The organization is known for its commitment to leadership development and community service.

The Louisiana Jaycees are an active chapter of the national Jaycees organization. They have been involved in many community projects and have a strong commitment to leadership development and community service.

The Louisiana Jaycees headquarters building in Galveston was dedicated in May 1965. The building served as the headquarters for the Louisiana Jaycees and was a hub for community activities and events.

Vested Jaycee members from various areas of the state, including Jim Williams, state chairman, and other members of the Louisiana Jaycees, were present at the dedication ceremony.

Members of the state delegation at the national convention in Buffalo held awards ceremonies for the new Louisiana chapters.

The Louisiana Jaycees are an active chapter of the national Jaycees organization. They have been involved in many community projects and have a strong commitment to leadership development and community service.