In the year nineteen hundred and sixty-six, ten artists — Ignatius D'Aquila, Allan Jones, Dutch Kepler, William L. Moreland, Elemore Morgan, Fred Morgan Packard, James Robison, George Rowan, Bob Wiggs, and Don Williams banded together to form an Art Gallery in Lafayette, Louisiana for the purpose of making Fine Art available for purchase by the public. On November Twentieth of the same year from three-thirty to five in the afternoon the doors will be opened to the public. To this premiere showing you are cordially invited.
