Local youths show off an alligator killed in Henderson

An alligator rides atop a 1936 Ford on Jefferson Street in front of Antler’s Billiard Parlor.

After an alligator hunt in Henderson in the summer of 1943, T.J. Thayer, John Henry Pool, Arthur “Brother” Belote and Raymond Pool displayed their catch downtown. Looking on at the left was Abe Plonsky.

This photo is part of the permanent collection on display at the Lafayette Parish Clerk of Court office in the Parish Courthouse.

If you have an historic picture you would like to see displayed in the collection, contact Clerk of Court O.C. Dan Guilliot. He will have it reproduced and return it to you.
