Louisiana Places

Christy Springs

William C. McRae, who is lieut. be the first untouched in the 1st War of 1812, fought under General Jackson in the Battle of New Orleans in 1814. After the war he remained in New Orleans and began a hotel business. In 1836 he purchased the first of New Orleans pote-sneak root, which included a settle-mint of St. Tammany Parish, also, which incorporated the Akins Company.

According to the forner-owners act, the purpose of the Akins Company was to establish "an hotel, store and all kinds of instm.

Christy Springs is, Tamme-ny Parish, with their pro-spites, water supply, and to construct n per e and railroad from the springs to Lake Pontchartrain.

The Civil War started with the war, and Christy Springs became a popular resort, but the City, today, we know the known by still another name, Akins Springs.

Historian, J. F. Schuster's nue. In St. Tammany parish, and Planters'