MARKER RITES SET SATURDAY

(Times-Picayune Upriver Bureau)

DESTREHAN, La. — An historic highway marker for the Destrehan Manor House here will be dedicated in ceremonies scheduled for 2 p.m. Saturday.

Harnett T. Kane, New Orleans author, will be guest speaker at the dedication, which is being sponsored jointly by the St. Charles Parish Bicentennial Committee and the River Road History Society.

Mrs. Frances Merritt, chairman of the parish's bicentennial committee, said Don Courts and Olan Pankratz of the Louisiana Tourist Development Commission will unveil and dedicate the marker. Judge Ruche Marino of the 29th Judicial District will be master of ceremonies.