COMPLETION NEARS — Construction on the Maxim D. Doucet, math-education building on the University of Southwestern Louisiana is nearing completion. The building being constructed at a cost of $1,350,000 with funds in the amount of $900,000 from the Capital Construction and improvement Commission plus $450,000 from a grant of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare, will provide 41 classrooms and more than 50 faculty offices for both departments. The building faces on Johnston Street and is on the main quadrangle between Foster and Mouton Halls.