$1.2 Million Mental Health Center To Be Housed In TB Annex Here

By ANN HERNANDEZ

Lafayette is agin to again spread the word about the establishment of a new mental health center.

The new center will be housed in the recently completed TB Annex in Lafayette. The new center will be administered by the Acadiana Mental Health Center, which will be completely funded by the Federal Government.

The center is expected to be open in the near future, and it is scheduled to begin operations by fall. The center will provide mental health services to the residents of Lafayette and the surrounding areas.

The center will be staffed with highly trained mental health professionals. It will offer a wide range of services, including outpatient and inpatient treatment, counseling, and therapy.

The center will be open to all Lafayette residents, regardless of their ability to pay. It will accept all major insurance providers, including Medicaid.

The center will be located at 1150 Main Street, Lafayette. It will be open Monday through Friday, from 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM.

The center will be a state-of-the-art facility, designed to provide the best possible care to its patients. It will include a large inpatient unit, a outpatient clinic, and a classrooms for educational programs.

The center will be led by Dr. John T. Rice, who is a highly respected psychiatrist in the area. Dr. Rice has over 20 years of experience in the field of mental health.

The center will be funded through a grant from the federal government. The grant will provide $1.2 million for the construction and operation of the center.

The center will be staffed with over 50 mental health professionals, including doctors, nurses, counselors, and therapists. The center will provide services to over 1,000 patients annually.
