In spite of Saturday's rains, the Ninth Annual Cajun Day Festival was another tremendous success, held Sunday, October 18th at the Saddle Tramp Clubhouse with the Saddle Tramp Club sponsoring the event. The Festival was dedicated to a local musician, the late Mr. Alphonse Bergeron.

Mrs. Alphonse Bergeron was crowned the 1968 Cajun Queen by the 1967 Cajun Queen, Mrs. Lillian Higginbotham. Winner of the Most Original Dance Contest was Mrs. Lola Luttrell Timothy Frugé, and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frugé was the first place winner in the French speaking contest for children under 12 years and second place winner was Jeanine Labbe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luttrell Labbe of Ofoosuffa.

They were crowned the Petit roi et reine du Cajun. The first place winner received a prize of $10, the second place winner received $60 and the third place winner, Danielle Labbe, out of Mr. and Mrs. Luttrell Labbe of Ofoosuffa.

The final contest was the Queen of the Festival. The final contest was the Queen of the Festival. The first place winner received a prize of $10, the second place winner received $60 and the third place winner, Danielle Labbe, out of Mr. and Mrs. Luttrell Labbe of Ofoosuffa.

The trophy, worth $100 was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Richard Charles of Morgan City.

Winners in the Accordion Division were Blake Mouton of Port Allen, second place; and Mark Miller of Church Point, third place. Winners in the Junior Division were Richard Breaux, first; first winners, second and third were Bobby Breaux, third. Senior Division winners were Thomas Matte, first; Russell Breaux, second; and Robert Gue, third.

First runner-up to the new Queen was Mrs. Lillian Luttrell, second runner-up was Ovon "Toot" Gue. The new Queen was presented with a dozen roses, donated by the Town of Church Point, by Councilman King C. Thibodeaux.

The Festival began with the Saddle Tramp Band which entered, on Saturday night, at Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church. The French Mass was celebrated by Father Jean Carrier, with the Cajun Queen and members of the Saddle Tramp Club taking part in the celebration of the Mass.

The Cajun Dress Contest was held Sunday, October 18th at the Saddle Tramp Clubhouse. The contest was sponsored by the Saddle Tramp Club and the judges were Mrs. Lillian Higginbotham, Helen Higginbotham, and Mrs. Lillian Luttrell.

The contest was divided into two parts: Miss and Miss Junior. The first place winner was Miss Higginbotham, and Miss Junior was awarded to Miss Luttrell. The second place winner was Miss Higginbotham, and Miss Junior was awarded to Miss Luttrell. The third place winner was Miss Higginbotham, and Miss Junior was awarded to Miss Luttrell.

The winners were crowned as follows: Miss Higginbotham, Miss Junior Higginbotham, Miss Luttrell, and Miss Junior Luttrell.

The Festival ended with a lively dance and a large crowd of people.

75937

Church Point News
Oct. 22, 1970