Proclamation

WHEREAS, in the early days of this section of Southeast Louisiana first settlers were direct descendants of the Acadians who were exiled from Nova Scotia in 1755, and

WHEREAS, they brought with them their great love and devotion to the Catholic Church as the foundation of their ancestry and gave us a community of Church Point, and

WHEREAS, they brought with them their great love and devotion to the Sacred Heart of Mary, which has become an integral part of their lives, and

WHEREAS, early Jesuits kept their faith alive and their devotion to the Church as a fundamental part of their lives, and

WHEREAS, in 1882, the first Mass was celebrated in the Sacred Heart Church, hence known as the Sacred Heart of Mary Church, was founded to serve the community of Church Point, and the surrounding area and it has for the past hundred years served the residents of this community and in recognition of the many contributions which Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Church has made to our people and to the area’s growth through God’s grace, I, Harold Branghe, Mayor of the Town of Church Point, do hereby proclaim, September 12, 2003, as Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Centennial Day in Church Point, and I call upon all the citizens to observe this day by attending the Centennial Mass and honoring the many contributions which have been made to the growth of this community.

NOW, THEREFORE, it is

My Dear People:

I extend my heartfelt congratulations to the priests religious and people on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of Our Lady of the Sacred Heart Parish.

One hundred years of dedicated service to God and His people constitute a golden record of which any Church community can be justly proud. In the name of the Diocese, I commend you on reaching this significant milestone in your history. May God continue to bless you and give you the grace to achieve much in His name in the years ahead.

With every best wish, I remain

Sincerely in our Divine Savior,

Gerard L. Frey
Bishop of Lafayette
