Confederate colonel lived at Oakborne Plantation

Oakborne Plantation was the first residence of Gustave Breaux, a colonel in the Confederate Army. The plantation consisted of 1,100 acres, now the Nickerson Estate. This photo is part of the permanent collection on display at the Lafayette Parish Clerk of Court office in the Parish Courthouse. If you have an historic picture you would like to see displayed in the collection, contact Clerk of Court O.C. Dan Guilliot. He will have it reproduced and return it to you.
