OFFICIAL SONG OF CRAWFISH FESTIVAL MAKES ITS DEBUT

"The Crawfish Crawl", official song of the Breaux Bridge Crawfish Festival, made its debut today.

The song is a joint project undertaken by Mrs. Altha Galyean, who wrote the words; Mrs. Johnny Wilson, who conceived the idea; and Budge Cutrera, who supplied the musical knowledge.

The song was recorded this week in Lafayette with Ron Gomez doing the vocal. The record is on the jukeboxes now will be on the market in four days; and will be sung during the Crawfish Festival this weekend. (Details of festival in story inside.)

Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Galyean began their project last year but delayed action to put it on the market until it could be timed with the opening of the festival.
