‘WE CAN’T GET A BREAK’

Officials assess severe weather damage across state

Edwards visits Breaux Bridge, where mother and daughter died in tornado

The Advocate
Apr 14, 2017
Pages 1-4
Column 1-4

Edwards visits Breaux Bridge, where mother and daughter died in tornado

A storm system that passed through the area caused severe weather damage. Governor Edwards visited Breaux Bridge to assess the damage and expressed his condolences to the families affected by the tornado.

The damage included a loss of life and extensive property damage in the area. Edwards used this visit to encourage residents to stay safe and to reinforce the importance of being prepared for severe weather conditions.