On June 26, 1906, the building was sold to the “Corporation of the Town of Lafayette” for $4,500. In 1908, a parish prison was built in the rear of the building and remained there for many years. National Historic Preservation Week is May 12-18. Local activities are sponsored by the Lafayette Preservation Commission in conjunction with Downtown Lafayette Unlimited.

This photo is part of the permanent collection on display at the Lafayette Parish Clerk of Court office in the Parish Courthouse.

If you have an historic picture you would like to see displayed in the collection, contact Clerk of Court O.C. Dan Guilliot. He will have it reproduced and return it to you.
