Over 5,000 to See Camellia Pageant

Over 5,000 seats will be available at 8 p.m. tomorrow night in Blackham Coliseum for the annual Southern Camellia pageant, one of the major events of the Calamaria Gala. The pageant will be followed by the annual dance at 11 p.m. at the Holiday Inn.

Joyce Phelan announced that Miss Lisa Dugan, Lady of Luling, will remain as Queen of Camellia for another year. Miss Dugan will be crowned by Judge John B. Gillham, chairman of the Camellia Gala. The pageant is being presented twice. The afternoon show will be at 2:30 p.m. and the evening show at 8 p.m.

Tomorrow night's pageant, which marks the opening of the Camellia Pageant, will be held in the Coliseum. The pageant will feature the Camellia Queen, Miss Lisa Dugan, and other members of the Camellia Court. The pageant is being held in conjunction with the Camellia Festival, which is a major event in the city.

The Coliseum is located on the north side of the downtown area. The pageant will be televised by WTOU-TV in New Orleans. President John F. Kennedy is expected to attend the pageant.
