PARISH FARM BUREAUS WORK WITH STATE GROUPS TO PROMOTE A BETTER ECONOMY

Firmly believing that "in union there is strength," one of the outstanding leaders in the Tennessee Valley Authority, E. P. Benstone, assistant secretary of the Tennessee Valley Authority, told the members of the Tennessee Valley Authority that "in union there is strength, and in strength there is might." This is the message that the Farm Bureau Federation is trying to get across to the American farmer, and the Farm Bureau Federation is trying to get across to the American farmer, and to the American consumer, that "in union there is strength, and in strength there is might." This is the message that the Farm Bureau Federation is trying to get across to the American farmer, and to the American consumer, that "in union there is strength, and in strength there is might." This is the message that the Farm Bureau Federation is trying to get across to the American farmer, and to the American consumer, that "in union there is strength, and in strength there is might." This is the message that the Farm Bureau Federation is trying to get across to the American farmer, and to the American consumer, that "in union there is strength, and in strength there is might."