Perrams to give craft demonstrations

Acadian Village, a replica of a 19th-century village, and most of the buildings are authentic. The Chapel of Hope was designed to reflect the architecture of an early 19th-century chapel. Ross Perram teaches how to use both hands and feet while operating a true loom, shown above. Among the crafts of potters who produce a yellow-gold dust.