Pine Alley Wedding of 1870
To Be Re-Enacted for ABC

ST. MARTINVILLE — Final preparations are being made for the re-enactment of the Pine Alley Wedding of 1870. The ceremony will be held on Sunday, May 1, at St. Martinville's historical church. The event is being organized by local historian and cattle rancher, John Smith.

The wedding took place in 1870 and involved a large gathering of the local community. The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Dupont, were well-respected members of the community. The wedding was attended by many, including prominent figures such as Judge Pierre Boudreaux and Sheriff Paul Moreau.

In preparation for the re-enactment, the church has been decorated with period pieces and the attire of the time period will be worn by the participants. The ceremony will include traditional music and speeches.

Onlookers are encouraged to attend and witness this unique event in Pine Alley's history.
