PIONEER ACADIANS' DESCENDANTS — Young ladies from Carencro High School represented 21 pioneer Acadian families from the area at the dedication of the historical marker at Beau-bassin two miles east of Carencro. The picture was taken at Cercle St. Joseph, where they were presented individually. In the front row (from the left) are Christene Arceneaux, Velma Babineaux, Jacqueline LeBlanc for the Bernard family, Deanna Bergeron, Shelia Benoit, Frances Breaux, Jeanette Martin for the Bourgeois family, Juanita Bourque and Sue Broussard. Second row, Gayle Brasseaux, Grace Cormier, Geraldine Chais-son, Sarah Ann Comeaux, Brunella Dugas, Phyllis Dupuis, Carol Ann Guilbeau, Marquitha Guidry, Janelle Guilbeau for the Hebert family, and Thelma Landry. Third row, Georgia Martin, Dianna Gayle Melancon, Susan Mouton, Judy Mouton, Judy Prejean, Cecile Conques for the Richard family, Dena Sonnier, Alice Thibodeaux and Helen Trahan. (Advertiser Staff Photo)

changes in bills to boost postal rates and overhaul the farm program.

The Daily Advertiser
Lafayette, La.
November 14, 1962
P. 11