Circle, Orleans

Features Noted
By ALBERT A. COLLIER

The Circle Gallery, 527 Royal St., is featuring two shows that stand out of the myriad rooms and groups that have already gone into holiday tempo. The Circle will present new works by Robert Gordy, who is featured in the Orleans Galleries, this coming week.

Robert Gordy, who is also a native of New Orleans, will be a part of the Circle's December schedule. His works are for the most part stuffed-suck figurines of small size, which are definitely not as large as the most recent exhibition, where the curtains on recent "metal leaf" paintings by George Dunbar at a 7 to 9 p.m., soirée.
