Proposals For Developing Acadia To Be Displayed

JEANERETTE — The Jeanerette Chamber of Commerce and the Jeanerette Recreation and Development Council will present a public showing of plans and studies for development of the Acadiana area Thursday at 10 a.m. in the pavilion in town.

The project concepts and plans were created by the Louisiana Division of the National Park Service and other federal agencies. The project is being sponsored by the Louisiana Recreation Development Council, a private non-profit group, and the Jeanerette Chamber of Commerce.

The purpose of the Thursday meeting is to present the proposed plans and alternatives for the future development of the Acadiana area. The meeting will be open to the public and will feature a presentation by architects and planners involved in the project.

The presentation will include a detailed overview of the project, including the goals and objectives, the proposed land use options, and the potential economic benefits of the development.

The meeting will be held at the Jeanerette Community Center and is free and open to the public. Attendees are encouraged to come and learn about the proposed development of the Acadiana area and to provide feedback on the plans.
