Chatelain Heads Local C Of C

E. J. Chatelain was elected president of the Lafayette Chamber of Commerce for 1955 at a meeting of the board of directors this week.

The transit company president was elected unanimously at a dinner in the Gorden Hotel. He succeeds R. J. Castille, local banker, as head of the organization.

Other officers named were Harry S. Castille, vice president, and Muller Broussard, treasurer.

Chatelain, who completes the last year of a three-year term on the board of directors in 1955, is also president of Lafayette Kiwanis Club and vice chairman of the Lafayette City Planning Commission. He is active in the Boy Scout program and other civic and religious projects.

The president-elect asked members of the board to suggest worthwhile projects for the group's 1955 program. Castille thanked Chamber of Commerce officers and directors for their aid during his term.

Five of the new members of the 18 member board of directors were introduced at the meeting. They were William Wolf, Sam Cobb, Gordon Hilton, J. Howard Stansbury and Harrel Town. A sixth new member, J. Alfred Begnaud, was absent.
