RARE PRINT ACQUIRED—Currently on exhibit in the Louisiana room of Russell Library at Northwestern State College is a rare colored print of the Battle of Oak Hills, fought on Aug. 10, 1861, near Springfield, Mo., by Hebert’s Third Louisiana Regiment. The print, held by Juanita Beene, seated, NSC student from Shreveport, and Miss Katherine Bridges, Louisiana Room librarian, was acquired through a special library fund donated to Northwestern by Mrs. Gertrude Bott Saucier of Baton Rouge.
